TWO SENATORIAL CONVENTIONS

Will Convene and Nominate Candidates This Month.

The Republican Senatorial convention of the 33d district will be held at Deshler August 15th.

It is understood that Hon. John E. Betts, of Findlay, who was defeated by Herman Dittmar, of Napoleon, two years ago, is an aspirant for the nomination. Fred Wolfe, of Wauseon, is considered a strong candidate, and Clyde Painter, of Wood county, has had some aspirations.

The delegates from Perrysburg and Ross township are Hayes Cromwell and Ross DeMuth of Rossford.

The Democrats of the 33d Senatorial district will meet in convention at Ottawa August 9, and nominate their senatorial ticket.

Senator Dittmar, the present incumbent, has announced his candidacy for the office of circuit judge, and will probably not be in the race. Just who will be the nominee is not known, but it is understood that Putnam county will make a strong bid for a candidate in the person of ex-Auditor Kersting and Edward Weiser.

The delegates from this township are George Munger, Jr., Philip Wetzel, Albert Reitzel, Jacob Schraum and Adam Leydorf.

JUDGE DILLON RESIGNS.

Judge Edmund B. Dillon, who was the Republican nominee for governor of Ohio, has resigned the nomination. It has been known for some time that he intended to make the step but his announcement that he had done so was a decided surprise to his friends.

Some time ago Mr. Dillon had a conference with Walter Brown, the Republican state chairman and the Roosevelt leader in Ohio, who told Dillon that unless he declared himself for Roosevelt that a third party would be launched in the state. Judge Dillon declined to be false to his party and hence resigned.

It is not known who will be put on the ticket. It may be that a proposal will be adopted to hold a state primary on September 3, when the constitutional amendments will be voted on.

SOME TICKET.

The ticket or ballot on which will be printed the amendments to the constitution of this state, to be voted on at the election September 3, will be just three feet long and ten inches wide. As the voter is expected to put an X before each of the forty-one amendments, either yes or no, it is estimated that it will take from five to ten minutes to mark the ballot. Full instructions for marking the ballot will be printed on the top of each ballot.

MOTORMAN WEDS.

Charles Colburn, of this place, a popular motorman on the Valley line, was united in marriage Tuesday evening with Miss Helen Tennyson, of Toledo. The ceremony was performed at Toledo.

After a little trip to northern points Mr. and Mrs. Colburn will make their home in Perrysburg. "Cooney" has lots of friends here who will join in best wishes for the happiness of the couple.—Maumee Advance-Era.

A FALSE REPORT.

Last week a report was circulated throughout Perrysburg and vicinity to the effect that we, the undersigned, had been arrested by the sealer of weights and measures for "short weighing."

We wish to emphatically deny that we were ever arrested or that our scales were found incorrect by the sealer when he inspected them on June 20th.

Below we furnish a statement from the official sealer of weights and measures which will verify what we have stated above and which we earnestly hope will continue the confidence of the public as to our honesty.

Very truly yours,
MUNGER BROS.,
H. A. KAZMAIER,
R. FRALIC.

To Whom It May Concern:

I understand it has been reported at Perrysburg and vicinity that Munger Bros., Kazmaier and Fralic scales had been tested and found incorrect.

In justice to all concerned, my records show that your scales have been tested on June 20th, 1912, and found correct and sealed according to law.

GFTS CONTRACT

To Pave Main Street Subject to Railroad's Acceptance.

The council met Friday at noon and opened the various bids for the improvement of Main street. After the bids were read council adjourned till evening. At the evening session it was decided to meet in adjourned session on Saturday evening. Six bids were received, viz., Joseph Shoup & Co., Dayton, brick; Asphalt Paving Block Co., Toledo, asphalt block; T. J. Mulligan Co., Lima, brick; Geo. B. Herring & Son, Mansfield, brick; Carpenter & Anderson, Grand Rapids, Mich., sarcolithic, asphalt cement and brick; Jeakle, Knepper & Kirkendall, Tiffin, brick.

At the adjourned session Saturday evening the clerk and mayor were ordered to enter into a contract with Mr. Mulligan for the pavement subject to the approval of the council and the concurrence of the Maumee Valley R. R. Co., for their portion of the pavement.

The bid as proposed by Mr. Mulligan was $18,978.76 for the village portion with cement filler and $20,171.38 with asphalt filler. The railroad portion will make the total cost of the improvement about $21,529.20, with cement filler.

The council will probably meet Thursday night of this week, when it is expected that Mr. Mulligan will have his bond ready and the railroad company will have reached their conclusion as to their acceptance of the bid.

The proposal of Mr. Mulligan is for Wassal brick.

NAPS WIN AGAIN.

The Perrysburg Naps' ball team defeated the Universal ball team of Bowling Green last Saturday in a well played game by a score of 6 to 5. Next Saturday the Sherlocks' of Toledo will be here for a game.

THE OHIO STATE FAIR

Is the Crossroads of Better Farming—Columbus, August 26-31.

If yield per acre is increased the soil is not wearing out. Barn yard music is as much a necessity as college diplomas and edged tools. The Ohio State Fair is one institution to which all citizens should be contributors. It points the way to better things. It will help the farmer to secure greater reward for this hard labor. The State Fair is a storehouse of suggestion. It is the crossroads where inventors display their latest wares.

Every person who has attended this big exposition is a walking billboard in favor of the fair. Those who attend will testify that it is a good investment to spend money seeing it.

Thousands of dollars have been expended in 1912 to make the grounds more beautiful and the buildings larger.

Weeks before the fair opens available space for exhibits is crowded. Hundreds of farmers who want to purchase a good breeding animal will

DON'T BE A KNOCKER

If You Don't Like the Place You Can Move.

Elbert Hubbard, editor of the Philistine, when not engaged telling the retail merchant, Edison, Rockefeller, the U. S. government and the Lord Almighty where they are all making grievous and inexcusable blunders, sometimes hits upon an idea of real practical worth. In a recent editorial he stated that "God made the country and the city, and the devil the small town." This statement summed up a description of the altogether too characteristic condition of the American town of from five hundred to two thousand population, in which mention was made of the pull-hauling, the political, religious and social cliques, merchants fighting each other tooth and nail, interminable gossip reeking with slander and falsehood, public spirit dead, selfishness, jealousy and envy rampant. Each individual or division of the population belittling, discouraging, if not actually knifing the enterprise of everyone else. Right here, perhaps, we have stumbled upon one of the causes of the decline of the small town. Look up any dead town and nine times out of ten you will find it is largely a community of knockers.

Now, knocking signifies to injure or destroy, and doesn't it stand to reason that where two-thirds of the population of a place are engaged in this delectable occupation that they just naturally are not doing a thing for the prosperity of that town.

It is claimed that knocking never starts until after a town begins to go bad, but supposing this is true, when a barrel begins to leak we do not proceed to stave it in or sit around and holler because our profit is running away, but we get busy and plug the leak.

Just so with the small town, the effect of knocking is destructive; on the other hand, a patriotic faith in a place has exactly the opposite effect. Its influence is creative and in a thousand ways it helps to build up a place. It sinks all petty differences and promotes untied action for the common good.—National Hardware Bulletin.

LETTER FROM WESTERN CANADA

E. L. Blue Sees Some Interesting Sights Enroute to Portland, Ore.

Saskatchewan County, Canada,

July 6, 1912.

Passing through this section of farming territory, the traveler is amazed by the vastness and magnificent distance of the scene. For miles and miles, and then more miles, there is nothing to be seen but farms, and there are so few houses that the view is scarcely obstructed, and all is a sea of waving grass and grain way out to where earth and sky seem to meet and earth's gorgeous green mingles with the beautiful blue of heaven's dome.

In some sections many miles of land are being plowed for "summer fallow," and to see an immense traction engine run by gasoline power, pulling a "gang plow" which turns over a dozen or sixteen furrows as it passes over the farm, is a novel sight of great interest to one who has never seen anything of the kind before. And although the highest type of farm machinery and implements are in use here, I also observed one farmer ploughing with four big steers as motive power, and they were certainly getting over the ground in good shape.

The occasional homes that may be seen while passing through on the train indicate that their owners are enjoying a high degree of prosperity.

Political news from the States has been mighty scarce since leaving St. Paul, and it was Wednesday morning at Moose Jaw that the news was

HOUSE AND BARN BURN.

During a severe electrical storm Sunday evening, the barn owned by J. M. Van Valkenburg, living near Grand Rapids, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed. A young colt, the only live thing in the barn, was taken out in safety. While men were trying to remove the machinery a spark from the barn set fire to the house, which stood near there, and burned it to the ground together with its contents. The loss is probably $2,000, partly insured.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD.

The body of John LeGally, aged 73, who died while visiting relatives in Lafayette, Ind., was received at Bowling Green Monday afternoon by relatives. Mr. LeGally had been a resident of Wood county for 60 years.

AUTOMOBILE BURNED.

A barn belonging to C. E. Baker, of Bloomdale, burned Saturday, together with a large automobile that was standing in it at the time. The flames spread across the street to a barn belonging to Smith & Stillwell. Mr. Baker's loss will be $2,000, with $1,000 insurance on the auto.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Sunday evening meeting of the C. E. society will be led by Donald Finkbeiner, August 4th. Subject, "The Christian Virtues, VIII, Temperance." I Cor. 9:19-27.

This is our monthly consecration meeting and a good attendance is desired.

"Were all medicines as meritorious as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the world would be much better off and the percentage of suffering greatly decreased," writes Lindsay Scott, of Temple, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

YOUNG COUPLE WED

Miss Hazel Sawyer and Mr. Wilbur Rhodes Take Vows.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sawyer, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, July 31, 1912, Miss Hazel Sawyer and Mr. Wilbur Rhodes, of Piqua, were made man and wife. Rev. E. J. Webster pronounced the rites.

The bride was attended by Miss Hulda Schaller and the groom by Mr. Charles Schneider. The bride was becomingly gowned in tan voile over silk and the groom in black.

Miss Sawyer was one of Perrysburg's most popular young ladies and Mr. Rhodes is the only son of Lewis Rhodes, of Piqua, O. They will make their future home on Walnut street in this city. They have the congratulations of a host of friends who wish them success in their new relations.

CAN DRAW PAY.

That the law provides that boards of education must pay teachers for the time they spend at meetings of educational associations is the opinion of Attorney General Hogan. There is no way of avoiding it, he said.

"If school is not in session when the institute is held," said Hogan, "the board must pay the teachers $2 per day for not less than four days nor more than six days. In event that the institute is held when school is in session, the teacher attending the institute is entitled to regular pay for days absent from school because of the institute."

There seems to be an erroneous belief that the attorney general had previously given a contrary opinion on this question.

MOTORCYCLES MUST PAY.

It is practically certain that motorcycles will be included by the next legislature with motor vehicles that must have annual licenses from the state, but the question arises as to how the tags will be fastened to the little machines.

In order that the tag may be large enough to facilitate the indication of reckless riders, the tag must be too large to fit any place on the machine. It is also desired to make the license fee less than for automobiles, but under the constitution it is feared that such a discrimination would be fatal to the act as the law is a police regulation and not a revenue measure.

C. M. B. A. VICTORS.

Last Sunday the C. M. B. A. ball team defeated the strong Melvin Semi-Pros of Toledo in a close and exciting game by the score of 2 to 1. The Melvins are a strong and fast organization of ball players and are considered one of the best teams in Toledo. They played a good game but the locals outplayed them in every particular. It is a pleasure to see the hitting that the home boys are doing, hits coming when they are needed.

Next Sunday the East Toledo Athletics will be the attraction and the local boys intend to make it three straight games. The games are characterized by the clean and gentlemanly manner in which they are played. The attendance has been very small but it is hoped that a better crowd will be in evidence next Sunday. Game called at 2:30. Admission 15 cents.

FLYING MEN FALL

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at C. P. Champney's.
